FLAMBOROUGH HEAD.
Valette

LL3733

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Flamborough Head. A bold rocky headland at the northern extremity of Bridlington Bay, the highest point of which is 400 feet above sea level. From the extreme end, a magnificent view of the coast line can be obtained. The lighthouse is 87 feet high and stands a little way back from the cliff edge. Flamborough Head Light is visible at a radius of 21 miles.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

"BRIDLINGTON." [Regd.] Postcard 6217.
Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE"
ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

Printed in England.

CT PA 12. 9